

GOVERNANCE

Conflict of Interest and Confidentiality

Your co-op's board members and managers make decisions on a daily basis that are impacted by conflict of interest and confidentiality issues. Ever more important, these considerations play out in such operational processes as member and candidate selection, eviction, tendering, etc. Ensure individuals involved in these processes know their rights, responsibilities and obligations.

This workshop covers the following:

- standards for confidentiality in a co-op setting
- negotiating the tendering process
- conflict of interest in co-op by-laws
- ethical board conduct
- addressing membership and staff inquiries
