

The Benefits of Summer Camp

A summer camp provides a safe environment for youth to develop social skills, decision-making skills, and experience the great outdoors. In fact, socialization during your youth will accomplish more for growth and development than any form of technology could ever deliver.

Develops lifelong skills

Social, communication and leadership skills.

Fosters independence & growth

Being away from home builds confidence.

Supports healthy living

Healthy eating and physical activity.

Creates time for play & fun

Swimming, campfires, crafts and games.

Teaches teamwork & co-operation

Working with others and recognizing peers.

Builds community & purpose

Inclusion, a sense of belonging and duty.

Connecting with nature

Respect and appreciate your environment.

Builds resilience

Face challenges and overcome them.
